Experts' Discussion on Global Governance:

Tackling the unresolved question of Self-Determination in the 21st Century

17.09.26

ONLINE

17:30 CET - 11.30 ET

This event is financially supported by the European Parliament.
The European Parliament is not liable for the content of the event nor the opinions of the speakers.

JOHN JAY COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Coppieters foundation

Experts' Discussion on Global Governance:

Tackling the unresolved question of Self-Determination in the 21st Century

17.09.26
ONLINE
17:30 CET - 11.30 ET

Over the past century, multilateral institutions have contributed to advancing the rights of indigenous peoples and minorities, supporting the development of international legal and normative frameworks. However, the question of self-determination remains largely unresolved.

Contemporary geopolitical developments and the evolving understanding of identity, sovereignty and participation urges us to revisit this issue from both normative and policy-oriented perspectives.

PROGRAM

- Welcoming words by Antonia Luciani, Coppieters Foundation President

- Contending Self-Determination Claims in the Human Rights Universe by George Andreopoulos, Professor of Political Science, John Jay College of Criminal Justice and at the Graduate Center (CUNY) and founding Director of the Center for International Human Rights, John Jay College

- Self-determination and the Problem of the Democratic Self by Lluís Pérez-Lozano, Adjunct professor on political theory, Universitat Pompeu Fabra

  Discussants are Steve Rosow, Emeritus Professor of Political Science, SUNY at Oswego, and Fernand de Varennes, expert on human rights and international law.

Language: The event will be held in English.

Organisers: Coppieters Foundation together with the Center for International Human Rights (CIHR) at John Jay College of Criminal Justice at City University of New York (CUNY).